

Whycliffe 'Dave' Cameron

President & Chief Executive Officer at Infiniti Capital Jamaica

Whycliffe "Dave" Cameron was born on April 8th, 1970. Graduated from Kingston College in 1989.

Dave Cameron earned the Douglas Forrest Scholarship (Sponsored by Frank Rance) for Hotel Management in 1989, to pursue studies at the University of the West Indies—Nassau Campus, where he earned a Bachelor's Degree, with First Class Honours.

In 1998 he graduated from the University of the West Indies with a Master's of Science Degree in Computer-based Management Information Systems. Over the years, he has worked his way up in Finance to today being Founder and CEO of Infiniti Capital Jamaica Ltd.

An Experienced Leader skilled in Negotiation, Budgeting, Business Planning, Operations and Sports Management. Strong business development professional and well-rounded individual with a demonstrated history of performance in the Financial Industry.

Over 20 years of experience having worked with Dehring, Bunting and Golding in 1995 and being elevated to Vice President Treasury, Trading and Asset Management at Manufacturers Merchant Bank Limited in 2003 where he oversaw AUM of over $21B with an equity of over $1B at the time. Spent 3 years at Sterling Asset Management Ltd 2010-2013 and was instrumental in assisting the firm to double their capital in the 3 years and launch the Sterling Investments Ltd which is currently listed on the Jamaica Stock Exchange.

A member of the then, West Indies Cricket Board, now Cricket West Indies, since 2002 and during that time have served in various capacities before heading the organization in 2013 to 2019.

In 2013 we took over the leadership of West Indies Cricket that had an accumulated deficit of USD$5.8m and transformed it into a professional organization. Cricketers were now being employed and developed full time across the region and we had administrators employed in supporting roles. The result was the best individual ranking of most our players in decades which had started to translate into positive team results on the field.

Dave Cameron is an avid sportsman and enjoys squash and golf. He is married to Connie Cameron, with whom he has 4 children.