

Biography - Greg Christie

GREG CHRISTIE is the Director of the Turks and Caicos Islands Integrity Commission. He is a former Contractor General of Jamaica and the former UK-DFID-supported Consultant and Principal Advisor to Transparency International's Jamaica arm, NIA. An Attorney by profession, Mr. Christie was previously a Country Director, and the Global Commodities Business Unit Vice President and Assistant General Counsel for the Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corporation, with which he worked for 13 years. He has also served for 10 years as a University of the West Indies Law Director and Lecturer in Corporate, Insurance, Criminal and International law, and for 3 years as a Tutor in Insurance, Banking, Credit and Securities Law at Trinidad's Hugh Wooding Law School. Mr. Christie has consulted with the UN-ECLAC and Air Jamaica, among other institutions, in governance, anti-corruption, and international commercial law.

Mr. Christie is the holder of the LL.B. Degree from the UWI, the LL.M. Degree in Corporate, Insurance, Air and Space Law, and Law of the Sea, from the University of London, and the L.E.C. from the Hugh Wooding Law School. He holds business executive development certifications and has completed programmes at the Haas Business School, University of California at Berkeley, and the Darden Business School, University of Virginia. Mr. Christie has also received Anti-Corruption, Governance and Law Enforcement training in Singapore, and from the Commonwealth Secretariat, the U.S. State Department, Scotland Yard, UN-ODC, and the Regional Anti-Corruption Academy for Latin America and the Caribbean. He has participated in and/or made presentations at leading Anti-Corruption, Governance and Law-Enforcement events in Europe, Asia, Latin America, UK, the USA and the Caribbean. Mr. Christie is a Jamaica Government and UWI Post-Graduate Law Scholar. He has worked, studied and/or resided in 9 Caribbean countries, the United States, England and Ghana.