

Profile – Hector Robinson QC

Hector Robinson QC is the Cayman Islands Litigation Practice Group Head for international offshore law firm, Mourant. He has more than 28 years' experience as a civil and commercial litigator and was appointed Queen's Counsel in February 2017. He is recognised as a thought leader, trusted adviser and first port of call for many local and international clients and intermediaries. He regularly appears as an advocate before the Cayman Islands Grand Court and Court of Appeal.

Hector's work is now primarily focused on advising and representing trustees, settlors and beneficiaries in complex cross-border trust and estate disputes. His practice also covers regulatory investigations, fraud and asset tracing, receiverships, contentious property disputes and cross-border employment advice. He speaks regularly at professional conferences and seminars and has written articles published in prestigious and widely read publications such as Solicitors Journal, New Law Journal and PLC.

He has, on a number of occasions, been accepted and relied on as an expert on Cayman Islands law by United States state and federal courts.

Hector is the Chairman of the Cayman Islands Law Reform Commission and a member of the Chairmanship Panel of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Cayman Islands Institute of Professional Accountants.

Following a long career as a competitive club cricketer, Hector is now the President of Cayman Cricket, the national governing body for cricket in the Cayman Islands.
