Profile of Robert McIvor Robinson

Deputy Chairman of the Integrity Commission – Grenada

Mr. Robert Robinson has had a long and illustrious career in the Public Service in Grenada and Trinidad that spans over thirty years.

He served as a member of the Federation of the West Indies Civil Service in Trinidad, the Windward Islands Civil Service, headed by the Governor of the Windward Islands based in Grenada and the Grenada Civil Service. He was also a Director with the Employers Consultative Association of Trinidad and Tobago.

As a result of his expertise he was appointed as the Labour Adviser with the Government of Grenada and up to present is an Industrial Relations Consultant.

Mr. Robinson is an active and engaging person; this is evident in his extra-curricular activities. He served for ten (10) years in the following organisations:-

- Treasurer and subsequently President of the Grenada Civil Service Association (now named the Public Workers Union)
- Circuit Steward, Grenada Circuit of the Methodist Church in the Caribbean and the Americas
- Secretary, Grenada Cricket Association

Mr. Robert Robinson was one of the founding members of the Office of the Integrity Commission Grenada from its inception. Currently, he serves as the Commission's Deputy Chairman. He was also a member of the inaugural Executive of the Commonwealth Caribbean Association of Integrity Commissions and Anti-corruption Bodies (CCAICACB) for two terms.

Mr. Robinson is married, and has three children and grandchildren.
