

BIOGRAPHY OF SUPERINTENDENT TAFAWA PIERRE

Superintendent Tafawa Pierre has over twenty seven (27) years of experience as a Police Officer with the Royal Grenada Police Force (RGPF). Throughout his career he received extensive training locally, regionally and internationally in general police work, criminal investigation, financial crimes investigation and instructional techniques.

In 2008, Mr. Pierre formed part of the team that was responsible for preparing Grenada for the examination by the Caribbean Financial Action Task Force (CFATF). He also attended the First Annual Conference of International Association of Anti-Corruption Authorities in Beijing, China, where he presented on special investigative techniques.

In 2009 he served as Officer Second In-charge and Divisional Commander for the Eastern and Western Division respectively of the Royal Grenada Police Force (RGPF).

Between 2010 and 2012, Mr. Pierre was the Commandant of the RGPF Police Training School and was selected to chair the Practice Committee of the Regional Security Services (RSS) Training Institute, Barbados.

In 2013 he served as Staff Officer In-Charge of Training, Regional Security Services (RSS), Barbados.

At present, Mr. Pierre is the Head of the Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU) Grenada, a member of the Anti-Money Laundering (AML/CFT) Commission Committee and represents Grenada at several meetings and forums.